Gibson Stresses Higher Learning Readjustments

"The hope of survival as a free and enlightened people is higher education," stated Dr. Arrell Gibson Saturday night at the Alumni banquet. "Every institution in the country will have to readjust and readapt its programs to meet increased enrollments," the University of Oklahoma professor declared.

Beginning in a humorous vein, the 1941 J.J.C. graduate grouped alumni speakers into two general categories — the "brag" type and the "recollection" type. Then he concentrated upon expanded educational programs.

"We are revolutionizing curriculums from kindergarten upward, placing more responsibility on grade schools and high schools, which means that we can turn our attention toward higher education."

The speaker emphasized that the Alumni Association can play an important role in assisting the administration by giving support in various areas, such as the library, for which he offered to contribute approximately 100 books.

Jack Holden, president of the Association, introduced Gibson. Holden also recognized 1963-64 Executive Board officers: Mrs. Sallye Elliff Miller, president; Bill Baum, vice-president; Mrs. Judy Allen Stinnett, secretary; and Mrs. Janice Felker Boe, treasurer.

Bands to Present Concert Tonight

The Stage and Concert bands will present a formal concert at 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium. The performance is open to the public and free of charge.

The Concert Band will appear first, presenting the finale from the "New World Symphony" by Dvorak, "Night Clouds" by Budka, and "Metropolitan Scene," a tone poem illustrating New York City, by Walter Beeler.

The Stage Band will play two pieces that director Russell Ben-zamin said were written especially for it by Bill Murray: "Ballad Thing for Russ" and "Shining Stockings." Other selections are "I Remember Basie," a dedication to Count Basie by Dick Fino.

The Stage band presented a jazz assembly last week, featuring some of numbers listed above.

New Constitution Becomes Official

The product of the first constitutional convention in 15 years became official Wednesday with ratification by the student body. Several months of study, discussion, and rewriting by the delegates preceded final approval by Dean Leon Billingsly, making the finished draft ready for submission to student vote.

Records indicate that the first constitution, drafted in 1944, had not been completely revised by a constitutional convention since 1948 when provisions were adopted for greater proportional representation. During the intervening 15 years, Senates have recognized the need for revision but delayed the gross undertaking with numerous amendments and partial changes.

The 1961-62 Senate discussed a revision but at a March session voted to leave it to a specially elected convention of the following year rather than risk a rushed job.

A Summer Cabinet committee began preliminary work for the convention before the subject was brought before the 1962-63 Senate in the fall. In February, senators voted for a convention composed of delegates elected at class meetings.

Mrs. Mary Kirk Kelly served as faculty advisor.

Thank You. Have Fun!

After 25 years of faithful service to Joplin Junior College, Miss Vera Steininger retires this season from her position as commercial instructor. She has served from the beginning as sponsor of YWCA and of Pi Alpha Pi, which she was instrumental in originating. In addition, she has contributed many hours of free time mimeographing programs for civic and school groups and for individuals. She has also worked actively in many professional and civic organizations.

Among Miss Steininger's many contributions to the College is the portrait hanging in the library of Mr. H. E. Blaine, first dean of Joplin Junior College.

Miss Steininger will always be remembered for her enthusiasm and for her interest in her school and her students. We hope that her retirement will give her more time for painting and the other hobbies that efficient teachers have to neglect.

In Search of Comfort

It has been brought to our attention that the current Bermuda short fad is not only in poor taste, but also that it is not in the best interests of the College. It is not fair to say, however, that the wearers are merely a group of inconsiderate individualists. They are solely in search of comfort.

However, the assortment of shaven and shaggy legs promenading throughout our halls invites condemnation by our visitors.

The arguments for Bermudas are many, the most important naturally being comfort. The wearers recognize the fact that the quality of their work will improve if they are comfortable.

Since it is obvious that the academic year cannot be shortened, or the work load lessened due to the weather, we, therefore, appeal to the Board of Directors to grant funds for air conditioning our College, thereby adding significantly to the quality of work produced and to the restoration of haberdashery indicative of an institution of higher learning.

The College YW: Future, Present, Past

Mrs. T. L. Yokley (Jane Fletcher), a member of the first College YWCA, her daughter Linda, a member of the 1963-64 Y. Cabinet, and Miss Vera Steininger, first advisor of the 25-year old organization, discuss changes in the Y. following a banquet at which the anniversary was observed.

The Lion's Advisor A Column for Men

By the King of Beasts

When in the course of social events it becomes necessary for a group of advisorless males to face the swirl of the on-rushing summer alone and without counsel, we feel that something should be done. That something should help lessen the impact of summer on their befuddled souls. Here it appears in the form of a warning: Men BEWARE! At this very moment the women are watching!

We realize that the male is constantly under the shadow of female entrapment. We also realize that, in order to escape, the male must be mentally prepared to cope with the onslaught of female snares. As George Washington said, "Make no entangling foreign alliances." This is the key to an obligationless summer.

However, summer is a proving-ground for feminine offensive weapons, and consequently a trial for masculine defensive weapons. Throughout the winter months the diligent male has pursued the offensive and by the time summer arrives he is ready for the feminine "kill."

As with the Russians, May begins the time for armament parades. The most devastating weapon to the battle-weary male is the two-piece bathing suit. Beaten by books, and school as a whole, the male retreats to the summer oasis known locally as the "mill." There, seeking to relax in the sun, he is confronted with Weapon Alpha (the aforementioned bathing suit). Naturally the battle-scarred male retreats from the area with all possible haste.

Withdrawing to his first line of defense (the Dairy Queen and points north) the embattled male finds that the enemy has infiltrated the area in topless automobiles (Weapon Bravo). Once again the badgered male retreats, this time to the lake. Pursued by the amphibious branches of the female pursuit forces, the crushed male gives in. Against his will the male lives the life of the suppressed for the remainder of the summer.

This column is written not to change the inevitable, but with the idea of familiarizing you with it. In order that you might understand fully what is happening to you, for no matter how you may try, Buddy, the odds are against your retaining your freedom.

The summer belongs to the female forces, and with it most of the males.

Stage Band to Go To Denver Aug. 18-24

Members of the Stage Band are planning to improve their techniques at the National Stage Band Camp at Denver University August 18-24, according to Russell Benjamin. The director said that the camp at Denver will be under the direction of Stan Kenton and members of his band.

Students planning to attend are Tom Cochran, Randy Graue, Bob Holden, Herb Schade, and Mike Graves, who will play with the J.J.C. band next year. Benjamin said that he will accompany the group and take the classes given for the instructors. Their day will begin with breakfast at 7 o'clock and will end after 9:30 with studies or entertainment.

The instructor said that each student will study theory and arranging in the morning and later attend a sectional rehearsal under the direction of a member of the Stan Kenton Band to help improve individual technique.

Dear Jo Juco

(In this column Mascot Jo Juco answers the queries of the guys and gals of J.J.C.)

Dear Jo Juco,

I spend half the summer at drive-ins waiting for the car hops. Has anyone found a quick method of getting waited on?

Waiting

Dear Waiting,

Just wave at the policeman. He'll round you up a car hop on the double.

Jo Juco

Dear Jo Juco,

Summer is nearly here and I've been listening to the boys talking about the traps the girls are setting for them. If the boys don't want to get trapped, tell them to go to Boy Scout Camp.

Trapping

Dear Trapping,

Don't let the boys fool you with their talk. They want to get caught.

Jo Juco

Dear Jo Juco,

My boy friend and I are invited to a beer blast. Should we go?

Invited

Dear Invited,

If you are not allergic to poison ivy, are fast on your feet and can climb out windows, why not?

Jo Juco

Dear Jo Juco,

Exams are coming up and I am faced with one of the biggest decisions of my life: To cheat or not to cheat?

Undecided

Dear Undecided,

You know, of course, that the honorable thing would be not to cheat. During your life you will be faced with many big decisions and you cannot cheat on all of these. So use your conscience as your guide. Besides you will probably get caught.

Jo Juco

Dear Jo Juco,

We were sailing last week end and it was so windy that we were heeled over most of the time. A put-put went by in front of us and really made the boat rock. Where's the courtesy of the water?

Swamped

Dear Swamped,

There are always a few discourteous skippers who give all of the skippers a bad name. Courtesy for the water hasn't come out yet for the summer.

Band Recordings May Be Purchased Now

On sale this week are 200 high fidelity records recorded by the Stage and Concert bands. Russell Benzamin said the records are 12-inch L.P.'s and "are approximately 45 minutes of listening pleasure." He stated that these records were the first of the annual recordings to be made by the instrumental department.

The records are selling for $4 and may be purchased from any member of the Stage or Concert band, according to the director. Proceeds from the sale of the records will go to the music department to pay for a baritone saxophone.

Dr. H. P. Davis

World Analyst Discusses Israel

"The Middle East is in turmoil today," declared Howard Pierce Davis, lecturing here Monday on "Israel Today." "Israel is the victim of the hate of all countries desiring an Arab Union." Comparing Israel to the container in the parable of new wine poured into an old vessel, Davis said the result is fermentation.

The speaker believes that the world focuses on the area because it is the center of three great religions, but that the main problem rests in the Arab refugees left without a home. After giving both sides of the question, he concluded: "We hope to increase U.N. service to the section. We hope to have patience to wait."

His recent trip to Rome as an unofficial observer of the Second Vatican Council and his subsequent visit to Israel and the Middle East gave credence to his discussions.

Former Chart Editor Wins M. U. Award

Jerry and Mrs. Cooper, the former Virginia Clay, reside in Kansas City. Mrs. Cooper also worked on The Chart.

Senate Committee to Hold Hearing On Four-Year College Wednesday

At 4 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, Joplin leaders will attend a hearing before the Missouri Senate Education Committee on a bill which would establish branches of the University of Missouri at Joplin and St. Joseph.

The bill was sent to the Senate after the House of Representatives approved final passage on a $240,000 appropriation for the establishment of a University branch with Joplin Junior College as a base.

The enabling legislation proposes that if the local community furnishes land, buildings, and equipment, the board of curators of the University of Missouri will provide instruction for the third and fourth years.

Whether the $240,000 allocation will pass the Senate is doubtful according to Senator Richard Webster of Carthage, and Senator John E. Downs of St. Joseph. That figure is based upon an estimated 300 students enrolling in the junior class for the 1964 term, but the Senate Appropriations Committee received testimony from the two senators that a maximum of only 100 juniors could be expected to enroll the first year. Based on an allowance of $800 per student, they said that the appropriation might be cut to $80,000.

Noting the need for additional funds in order to establish the four-year college, Representative Robert Warden of Joplin went on record March 15 in support of a proposed one-cent increase in the state sales tax.

President Roi S. Wood and Fred Hughes, chairman of a committee of the Jasper County Development Association, spent the first of this week in Flint, Michigan, studying the physical plant, program, and administration of Flint College.

Gulick and Walker Receive Scholarships From Alumni Group

Other members of the Alumni Scholarship Committee include Jack Holden, Miss Martha McCormick, Mrs. Celia Sieglinger, and Elroy Thomas.

Breaks KSC Record

At the first track meet of this season held at Pittsburg, Kansas, Art Cortez scored a first by breaking a Brandenburg Stadium record when he ran the 100-yard dash in 9.6 seconds, bettering the previous record of 10.2. His time was seconds off the current world record of 9.2 seconds. He is also outstanding in the pole vault, 220-yard dash, broad and high jumps, 440 relays, and javelin.

Fort Scott Obtains Interstate Track Crown

Joplin finished a close fourth in the Interstate Conference track championship May 3 at Fort Scott.

Fort Scott took the title by shading Haskell Institute of Lawrence, 46-44. Highland, Kansas, Junior College closed third with 40½ points, and Joplin finished last with 39 points.

Art Cortez captured four first places, one second, and two thirds for 30 points. His victories were in the broad jump, high jump, 100-yard dash, and the 120-yard high hurdles. He placed second in the 220-yard low hurdles, and third in the 220-yard dash and the pole vault.

Joplin's mile relay team, finishing fifth in the event, was composed of Mel Bachmann, Larry Berner, Don Kellhofer, and Tom Thorne.

He collected 28¾ points in the relays, scoring victories, also, in the 100-yard dash, pole vault, high and broad jumps; third in the high hurdles, and anchored a third place in the 440 relays. Art was named most valuable performer last year in the SMS relays.

Other members of the relay team included Jim Beach, Mel Bachmann, and Larry Berner.
